YOU can say what you like about the Freight Rover Trophy, but for me it has produced a very interesting end to the season for Bolton Wanderers Football Club.

The fact is that whatever anyone else says about this competition, tonight's winners will be just one game away from a trip to Wembley and that has got to be an incentive to every player out there on the park.

Obviously my old boss Ian Greaves will have his players fired up to put one over on us but our players have had the message from me.

I've been telling them for some time now that the chance is there for them to play at Wembley — a chance which many players can never get. We've had the good fortune of a home draw in this round of the competition and we have the advantage of a home draw in the Northern Final should we win tonight.

So it's up to the players themselves to make the most of the advantage and give us all something special to cheer.

"Greavesie" knows there's a warm welcome here for him and his players and, of course, his supporters who have travelled up from Mansfield.

Two other faces in the Mansfield party will be particularly well known to Bolton fans — Neil Whatmore and Steve Whitworth who were both smashing lads in their times here.

We know that they, like the rest of the Mansfield players, will be determined to do well against us but we are just as keen to press home our advantage and take another step towards Wembley.

It has all the ingredients of a great game.

I hope you all enjoy it.

STAGS HAVE EYES ON WEMBLEY

by Tony Pullein

Mansfield now seem to have done enough to keep clear of the re-election places in the Fourth Division and, with their eyes very much on Wembley, are aiming for further success in the Freight Rover Trophy this evening.

Though they are no more than a mid-table side in the Fourth Division, Mansfield have pulled off some fine performances in this competition. In the first round they drew 2-2 away to one of the best teams in Division Three, Hull City. The Stags then won the home-leg 2-1 to earn a trip to runaway Third Division leaders Bradford City. In what was possibly their best performance of the season, Mansfield won 2-1.

They were held to a 1-1 draw by Burnley in the Northern quarter-final but succeeded 5-3 in the penalty deciders.

Though they have not won many away games in the League, they have collected a large percentage of points from drawn games. Before their trip to Scunthorpe on Saturday, the Stags had won at Port Vale (1-0), Southend (3-1) and Chester (3-0) and drawn at Stockport (1-1), Exeter (0-0), Aldershot (0-0), Hartlepool (0-0), Chesterfield (0-0), Crewe (1-1), Tranmere (0-0), Wrexham (2-2) and Bury (0-0).

Mansfield were beaten at Peterborough (0-1), Hereford (0-3), Halifax (0-1), Blackpool (0-1), Swindon (0-1), Colchester (1-2), Torquay (0-1), Darlington (1-3) and Northampton (0-1).

In the F.A. Cup they scored a 2-1 home win over Rotherham but then went out in round two at Bradford City (1-2).

Though they drew 2-2 on aggregate with Scunthorpe in the first round of the Milk Cup, they bowed out on the away-goals-double rule.

Former Bolton manager Ian Greaves took over at Mansfield in January 1983 and his chief aim, apart from going to Wembley, is to take the club back into the Third Division. They lost their place in 1980.

The Mansfield club was formed in 1905 and became a limited company in 1922. The Stags — so named because of the town's situation at the heart of the Sherwood Forest — ran up several local successes, winning the Midland League championship three times and the Central Alliance title once, before their election, at the seventh attempt, to the Football League in 1931.

Their claim for League status was helped tremendously by a fabulous 1-0 F.A. Cup victory over then-mighty Wolves at Molineux in 1929.

Later, in 1950, Mansfield enjoyed another good Cup run, defeating two Second Division sides (Swansea and Sheffield United) on the way to the fifth round when they were beaten at Blackpool.

Mansfield opened their Football League career in the Third Division (South) but, at the end of their first season, they were transferred to the Northern Section where they remained, without causing much of a stir, until the geographical arrangement of the Third Division required that the Stags should return to the Southern Section in 1947.

The Stags became founder members of the national Third Division in 1958. They were relegated to Division Four in 1960 and 1972, taking two seasons to get back on each occasion.

In 1977 they achieved Second Division status for the first time but, sadly, they remained for only one season. By 1980 they were back in the Fourth Division again.

KEVIN HITCHCOCK (Goalkeeper). Kevin started his career with Nottingham Forest but was not in contention for a first-team place at the City Ground. After moving on to Mansfield, he was given his chance in League football this season.

STEVE WHITWORTH (Defender). Steve is a player of wide experience. He played for England at schoolboy and youth levels and made his League debut for Leicester in 1970. Whilst at Filbert Street, he won six under-23 and seven full caps for England. With more than 400 games behind him, Steve was transferred to Sunderland for £150,000 in 1979 but two years later he came to Burnden Park in a £25,000 deal. Mansfield signed him during the 1983 close-season.

GEORGE FOSTER (Defender). George served his apprenticeship with Plymouth and made his first League appearances in 1973/74. Whilst with Argyle, he spent loan spells with Devon rivals Torquay and Exeter and in 1982 he was transferred to Derby for £40,000. He moved on to Mansfield in 1983.

COLIN CALDERWOOD (Defender). Colin was discovered in junior football and given his League debut in 1981/82. He won a regular place the following season and has been in the side for much of the while since.

DAVID LOGAN (Defender). David is another Mansfield discovery who has been drafted into the side this season. He has settled down well at left-back.

GARY POLLARD (Defender). Gary entered League football with Chesterfield in 1977/78 and he made about 100 appearances in their senior team before joining Port Vale in 1983. Mansfield signed him last summer.

PAUL GARNER (Defender/Midfield). Paul was signed from Sheffield United this season. His first club was Huddersfield and he settled down in their first-team in the early 'seventies. Sheffield United signed him in 1975. He made more than 250 appearances for the Blades but last season spent a short loan period with Gillingham.

TONY LOWERY (Midfield). West Bromwich signed Tony from Ashington and he made his League debut from them in 1981/82. He also went on loan to Walsall that season and originally joined Mansfield on loan in 1982/83. The full transfer was completed at the end of that season.

MARK KEARNEY (Midfield). Mark was transferred from Marine Crosby to Everton in 1981 but didn't get a chance in the Toffees' League eleven. He initially joined Mansfield on loan two seasons ago.

MIKE GALLOWAY (Midfield). Mike was discovered in non-League football and was blooded in League football by Mansfield last season.

NEIL WHATMORE (Forward). Neil needs no introduction here as he completed his apprenticeship with us and made his name as a Bolton player. Introduced to our League eleven in 1972/73, Neil was on three occasions our leading scorer, hitting a personal best tally of 31 goals in 1976/77. He moved on to Birmingham for £340,000 in 1981 but two seasons ago he returned to Bolton on loan. He also served Oxford on loan and eventually signed for Oxford for £25,000. He left The Manor at the end of last season and another move took him to Mansfield this term. He was joint top-scorer with nine goals before the holiday games.

NOEL LUKE (Forward). Noel got only occasional outings in West Bromwich's League team so he was happy to sign for Mansfield last summer. He has run into scoring form in recent weeks and has scored seven times prior to the weekend.

SIMON WOODHEAD (Forward). Simon developed in Mansfield's youth team and graduated to first-team duty in 1981. He celebrated his 100th League appearance for the Stags this season.

MICK VINTER (Forward). Mick joined Mansfield from Oxford for £25,000 last summer. He first played League football for Notts County in 1973 and in 1977/78 he was their top scorer with 22 goals. Wrexham signed him for £150,000 in 1979 and he spent three seasons as a first-teamer before moving on to Oxford in a £30,000 deal.

Club News

We welcome Mansfield Town to Burnden Park this evening for what will be their fourth visit here. To date all of those visits have ended in defeat and in fact, scoreless, for Mansfield.

The first occasion that our paths crossed was in October 1971, when in a third division game the Wanderers ran out 2-0 winners at Burnden thanks to first half goals from Roy Greaves and Garry Jones. Unfortunately Mansfield had got off to a bad start to the season having won only one of their opening ten games strangely enough at eventual champions Aston Villa, whilst most of the 8751 crowd were looking forward to the following weeks League cup tie against first division Manchester City.

The return game in March 1972 heralded Boltons first visit to the Field Mill Ground and to the Wanderers only defeat against tonights visitors. A single goal was enough to take the points and it came after 27 minutes when former England striker, Frank Wignall, volleyed home. Wignall in fact also saved Mansfield at the other end, when he cleared a shot from on loan striker Kevin McMahon off the line. A terrible snowstorm twenty minutes from the end almost got the game abandoned but the referee persevered although the result wasn't enough to prevent Mansfield from relegation which they suffered on goal average.

Our paths were not to cross again until October 1977 by which time both clubs had reached the second division. Two goals in as many minutes from Frank Worthington, then on loan from Leicester City, won Bolton the game at Burnden. His first came in the 71st minute when he blasted home a Neil Whatmore pass, and his second, was a brilliant diving header from a Peter Reid cross. The two sides for that game were: Bolton McDonagh, Nicholson Dunne, Greaves, Walsh, Allardyce, Morgan, Whatmore, Train, Reid, Worthington. Sub Waldron.

Mansfield: Arnold, Bird, Phillips, McEwan, Foster, Wood, Sharkey, Moss, Syrett, Hodgson, Aston. Sub Miller.

During 1977/78 the two sides faced each other in a 4th round tie at Bolton. Whilst the Wanderers were on top for most of the game the visitors put up a stubborn resistance and it was a Frank Worthington goal that separated the teams. The winner came after only three minutes when he stole in between two defenders to head home a John Ritson cross.

Bolton's last visit to Mansfield, and the last league game between the clubs took place in March 1978. The only goal came in the 52nd minute when Wanderers full back, John Ritson, thundered home a Willie Morgan free kick from 25 yards. On the other side of the Bolton defence at left Back Tony Dunne, then 36, took to the field despite a chipped bone in his left arm and performed well. Alan Gowling made his Wanderers debut in this game after his £120,000 move from Newcastle and had to play most of the second half with a bandaged head after a collision with Mansfield's Gordon Hodgson.

Last season the sides faced each other here in a 2nd round FA Cup tie with the Wanderers running out 2-0 winners. Wayne Foster opened the scoring after Town keeper Barry Daines failed to hold onto a Neil Redfearn shot, Foster touching home the rebound. Simon Rudge scored the second in the 37th minute when he came on as substitute, and found the net with his first touch, a brilliant diving header from a Ray Deakin cross. Mansfield gave a good account of themselves though and will be out for revenge tonight with Wembley so close. A welcome back to Burnden for former manager Ian Greaves and ex players Steve Whitworth, who made 67 league appearances for Bolton, and Neil Whatmore who scored 107 league goals in three spells with the club.

Our football league record against 'the stags' is as follows:—

Away	2	1	0	1	1	1
Total	4	3	0	1	5	1

Junior Whites News

Tonights mascot is Paul Green who lives on Trinity Crescent, Walkden. Paul is 8 years old and attends St Pauls Primary School in Walkden. He has played for the school team in midfield and his favourite players are George Oghani and Jeff Chandler.

Don't forget that the last Junior Whites meeting of the season takes place this coming Monday the 13th May at 6.30 pm in the Executive Suite.

Wanderers Lifeline Running Club

The Wanderers Lifeline runners will continue to meet for training sessions at Burnden on Monday evenings 7.00 pm during the summer. Many members are training towards the Bolton Marathon in September and any new faces are welcome. Changing facilities are available and are free to Lifeline members and 50p for non members.

A film of the Wanderers half marathon, held last month, will be shown at the Crest Motel, Beaumont Road, Bolton on Sunday 12th May 1985 commencing at 7.00 pm. The film made by Jimmy Goodinson and Peter Smith, will be shown on a large screen and includes a build up to the event. Admission to the evening is free and everyone runners and non runners are welcome to attend. Refreshments will be available.

Race is on

The race to be the Wanderers leading scorer is hotting up and looks like being a close finish. At the time of writing Jeff Chandler leads the way and looks like being the first Wanderer to break through the 20 league goal mark since Frank Worthington in 1978/79.

Not many clubs can boast three goalscorers in the charts, and when you consider the fact that the side went through a period of eight league games, in which only two goals were scored (both by Warrent Joyce) it makes the figures even more remarkable.

As far as the Freight Rover trophy games go, our six goals so far in the competition have been shared between three players, Warrent Joyce, Tony Caldwell and George Oghani with two apiece.

In Reserve

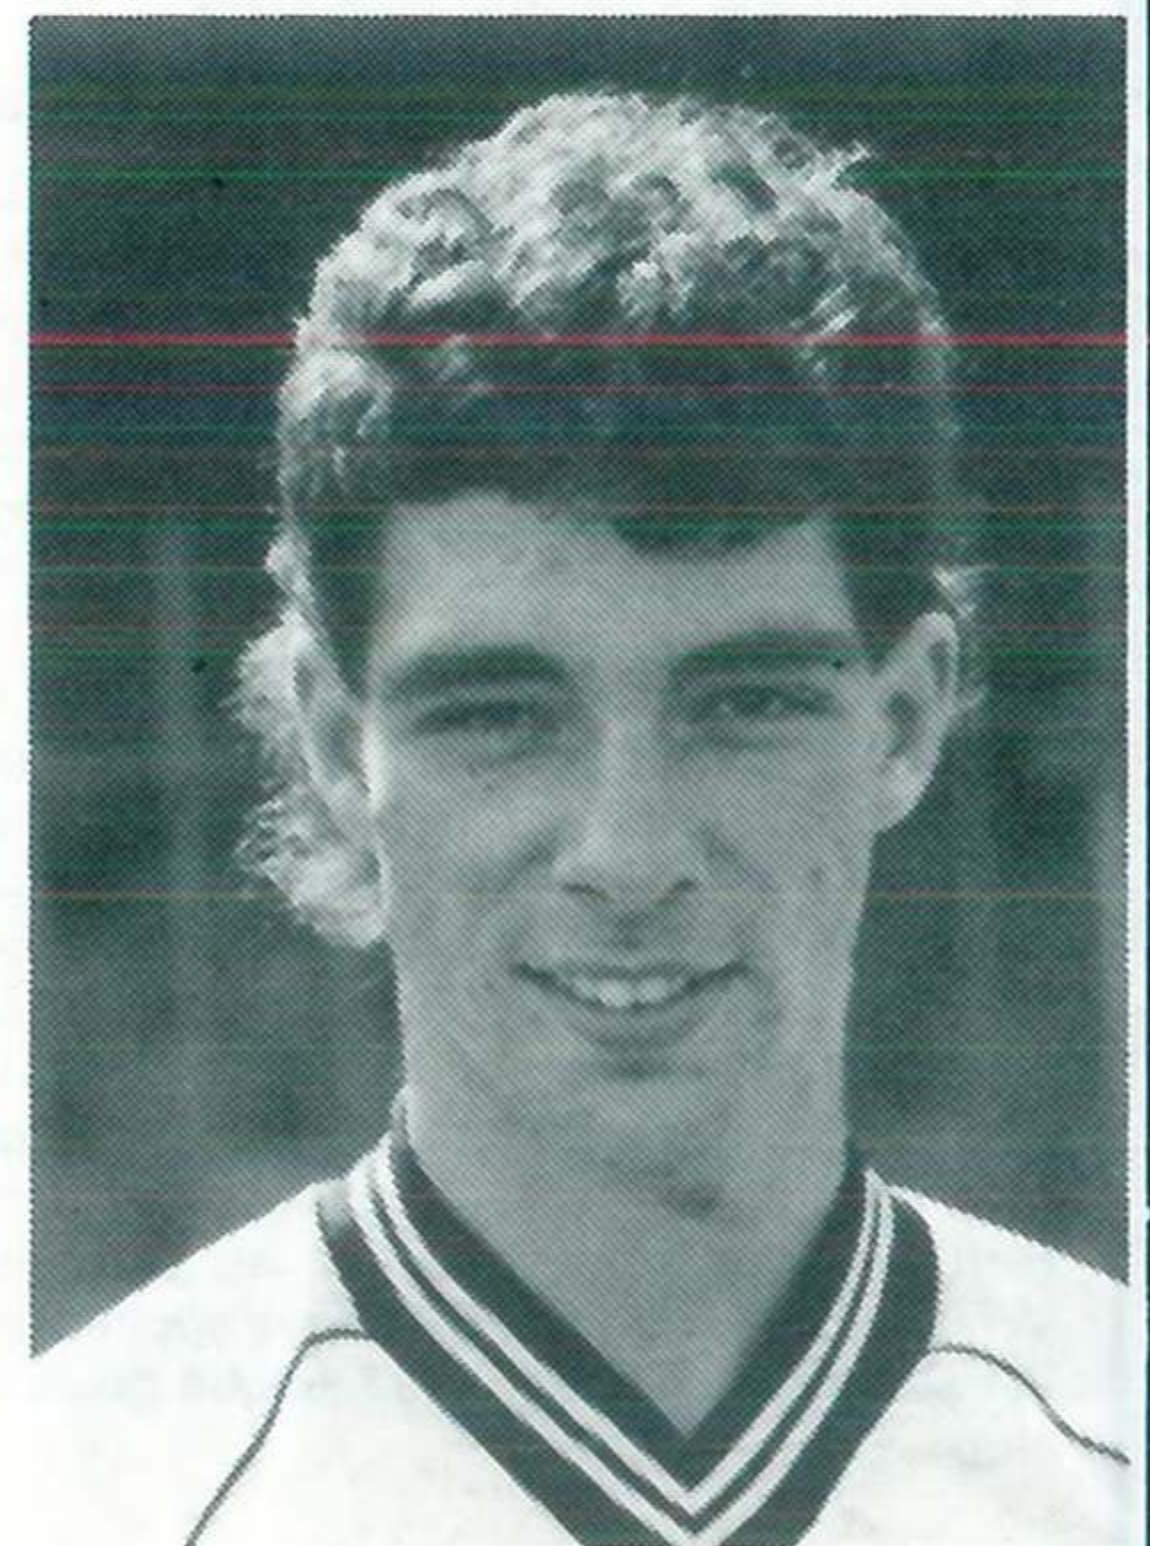

The reserves have three Central League games left to play at the time of writing, after what has been a fairly successful run in to the end of the season, which has been the club rise to the top half of the league.

Once again a number of youngster have made their mark and could be knocking on the first team door in the not too distant future. Most consistent of the players used this season has been Paul Booth, who has only missed one game, and is at home in either midfield or in the back four. Others, yet to appear on the first team scene, such as Julian Darby, Mike Whitlow and Mark Winstanley have performed well and the experience gained this year should put them in good stead for next season.

As with the first team, goals have been scored in plenty but also conceded with some regularity which has brought about some entertaining games. Some of the best results have come away from home when an experienced Bolton side defeated Wolves 6-2, just before Christmas, Tony Caldwell scoring four times and a 5-4 win at Blackpool after being behind on three occasions. Perhaps the best performance of the season was at Sunderland when a reserve side that contained a nice blend of youth and experience tore the home side apart.

Here at Burnden there have been plenty of exciting moments with George Oghani's two goals against Leeds and Roger Walkers performances on the right wing sticking out.

Simon Rudge leads the way in the goalscoring charts with 8 goals in his 16 games although he is being chased by Steve Saunders. Dean Roberts who had scored 5 times before breaking his leg in November is well on the road to recovery and should make his mark next season.
